

The Animal Union Volunteer Agreement and Liability Waiver

In order to volunteer for The Animal Union I, _____, hereby affirm and agree to the following: (print name)

1. I am 18 years of age or older.
2. I will discuss and define a desired volunteer position's duties and time requirements with a current director or representative of The Animal Union before committing to that position. This may be in the form of a group orientation or a one-on-one training session.
3. I will volunteer my services in an AU project for a minimum of two hours a week on the mutually agreed-upon times and days and at the sites specified for that service, if relevant. If I am unable to perform said services, will be late, or need to postpone said services I will notify the project's supervisor as soon as possible to reschedule.
4. There will be no financial or in-kind compensation for my services other than for pre-arranged and project-related out-of-pocket expenses that have been approved by an AU director or officer.
5. I will not discuss or disclose Animal Union-related information, meeting minutes or other internal business or communications with others outside of The Animal Union without permission of an Animal Union board member or officer.
6. I fully waive all liability and claims against The Animal Union, including its directors, officers, representatives, volunteers, partners, contractors, member organizations, and clients, for traffic accidents, moving or stationary vehicle violations, loss or destruction of personal items, loss of employment income, or bodily injury or illness suffered by myself or others while performing my Animal Union volunteer services or related and relevant activities.
